SOME QUICK HIGHLIGHTS OF THIS CONTEST

- A hard working organizing committee headed by the ever present Ed Wojchick of Orlando.

- One minute between attempts! This worked, and kept the competition on schedule, despite approximately 200 competitors.

- Bill Clark, as usual. He spent the entire competition in the warm-up room with a hand held radio and a second set of competition cards, communicating with the announcer's table - this eliminated the normal confusion next to the platform and kept the contest on schedule for all three days.

- Glen Byrd and Ed Wojchick shared the operation of the US Weightlifting Federation's electronic scoreboard and time clock. These two were flawless. And this was one more classy feature of this great event!

- Referees and officials, especially the New York crew of Adam Swirz, Joe Elkins, Rudy Sablo, Guedar Santana, Morris Weissbrot. Each and every other official, from the U.S. and abroad, also worked tirelessly throughout.

- The radio men at the announcer's table - Rev. Gordon, Bill McDaniel, and Richard Graham.

- The loaders - local lifters of the Junior, Master, and in-between variety; what a great job!

- The audience - these few hundred not only stayed for each medal presentation, they saved their loudest cheers for the Awards.

- Rafael Guerrero - he had the computer typed results you see here completed within a few hours of the finish of each day's lifting.

- more on page 21 -

- from page 20 -

- The President of the Pan American Weightlifting Federation, Murray Levin, was on hand to officiate and to address the gathering at the Saturday evening banquet.

- I used to notice that Clarence Johnson seemed to accompany the American team all over the world during the 1950's. Well, Clarence was here also, as he was in Indonesia a week earlier, and at the Seoul Olympics a few months ago. In his eighties, Johnson was recently re-elected as Vice-President of the International Weightlifting Federation. Clarence has probably been around the world 10 times in his lifetime.

- The Fantastic group of athletes, SPORTSMEN ALL!

- As Morris Weissbrot stated in closing his announcing duties "This is the best weightlifting contest I've ever attended".

WORLD MASTERS WEIGHTLIFTING

THIS IS HOW THOSE FABLED CONTESTS OF THE PAST TURNED OUT!

The job at hand for each of these athletes was to make their attempt. Complaints? - I don't remember any from the athletes, despite the language barriers. Problems due to the One-minute between attempts - only a handful of attempts were missed due to time problems. And that final attempt of LARRY GRIER was a most Grand Finale!!!
